

PHI BETA KAPPA
ALPHA ASSOCIATION OF COLORADO
2010 GRADUATE STUDY SCHOLARSHIP

This year Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Association of Colorado, will award one $4,000 scholarship for a Colorado ΦBK initiate or member to begin or continue graduate school. The purpose of the scholarship is to further the pursuit of knowledge and academic excellence.

Who May Apply: Any ΦBK member or initiate who meets one of the following criteria:

- has received, or will be receiving, an undergraduate degree from a Colorado university or college
- has been accepted for, or is currently enrolled in, a graduate program at a Colorado university or college
- is residing in Colorado at the time of application
- is a current member of the Alpha Association of Colorado

How to Apply: Fill out the scholarship application form. In addition to the application, please provide, or arrange to have sent, to the Scholarship Committee the following:

- A copy of a paper you have written (a minimum of 10 and maximum of 75 pages), an 8" by 10" photographic print or file on CD of artwork you have created, or a recording of music you have composed as part of your undergraduate or graduate studies. Please attach a cover sheet explaining why you selected this item for submission.
- Two letters of recommendation from individuals familiar with your academic studies or recent work experience.
- Written verification of graduate enrollment for the fall 2010 term from an accredited college or university.

Payment of Scholarship: The award check will be sent to the college or university where the recipient is enrolled for the credit of the recipient.

Taxation of the Award. Scholarships are tax free to the recipient only if he or she is a candidate for a degree and the funds are for tuition and fees required for enrollment or attendance at a qualifying educational institution. The scholarship will also be tax free if it covers fees, books, supplies, and equipment for courses at such an educational institution. The portion of any scholarship that covers associated expenses, such as room and board, travel, research, clerical help, and equipment, is not tax free. Recipients of taxable scholarships should report the taxable amount on their income tax returns, and they may have to pay estimated federal and state income taxes throughout the year.

Deadline for Applications: All applications and supporting materials must be received at the following address by June 15, 2010. The award will be announced by August 15, 2010.
